

BOEM Oregon Intergovernmental Renewable Energy Task Force

Cape Arago, Oregon

Source: Dave Pereksta

Portland, Oregon
June 26, 2014

- Activities Update
- Overview of BOEM's leasing process for the WindFloat Pacific Demonstration Project
- Overview of the environmental review process for the WindFloat Pacific Demonstration Project
- Discussion of input and coordination opportunities between BOEM and the State of Oregon

- Projects:
  1. PMEC – SETS Project
  2. WindFloat Pacific Project
- Oregon Stakeholder Roundtable with Secretary of the Interior Sally Jewell
- Fishing Outreach
- Tribal Government Updates
- State Activities Update

- Request for Competitive Interest (RFCI) published on March 28, 2014
- Determination of No Competitive Interest (DNCI) published on June 20, 2014
- FERC Notice of Intent to file License Application and Request to Use Alternative Licensing Procedures published in Federal Register on June 4, 2014
- Public Scoping meetings will be held on July 9, 2014 at the Hatfield Marine Science Center in Newport, Oregon

- Request for Interest (RFI) published Sept. 30, 2013
- DNCI published Feb. 6, 2014
- Department of Energy additional $47M funding announcement on May 7, 2014
- Notice of Intent (NOI) to Prepare an Environmental Assessment published May 29, 2014
- Public scoping meetings held June 17, 2014 in Coos Bay, Oregon
- Fishing industry outreach meeting held June 18, 2014, in Charleston, Oregon

Secretary of the Interior Sally Jewell, Governor John Kitzhaber and (former) BOEM Director Tommy Beaudreau met with stakeholders in Portland, Oregon in February 2014

Source: BOEM

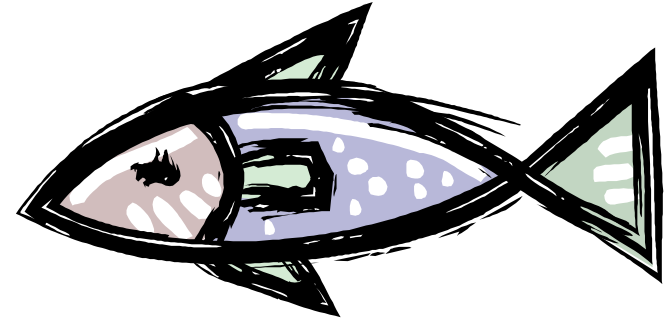

Roundtable discussion on offshore renewable energy potential with Oregon stakeholders

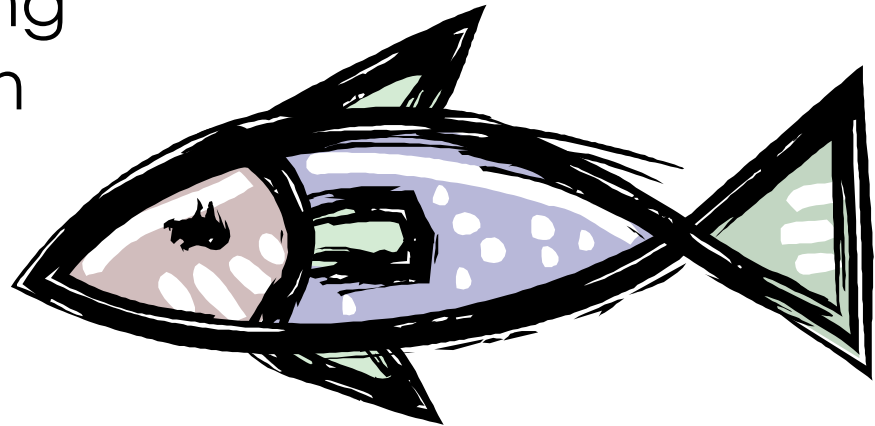

Source: BOEM

- May 21, 2014 – FINE meeting in Newport, Oregon

- June 18, 2014 – Fishing Outreach meeting in Charleston, Oregon

- Government-to-Government Consultations
  - Confederated Tribes of the Coos, Lower Umpqua and Siuslaw Indians
  - Coquille Indian Tribe
- WindFloat Pacific Project offshore Coos Bay, Oregon

Source: Principle Power

