

Avian Information

Relative Abundance of Marine Birds Sensitive to Offshore Wind Development

The Vineyard Northeast Lease Area is largely outside the core concentration areas of marine birds, including sea ducks, as illustrated in these two figures.

In total, 44 bird species were detected in the Lease Area during the Massachusetts Clean Energy Center (MassCEC) surveys and the site-specific digital aerial surveys.

