

Maryland Offshore Wind Project

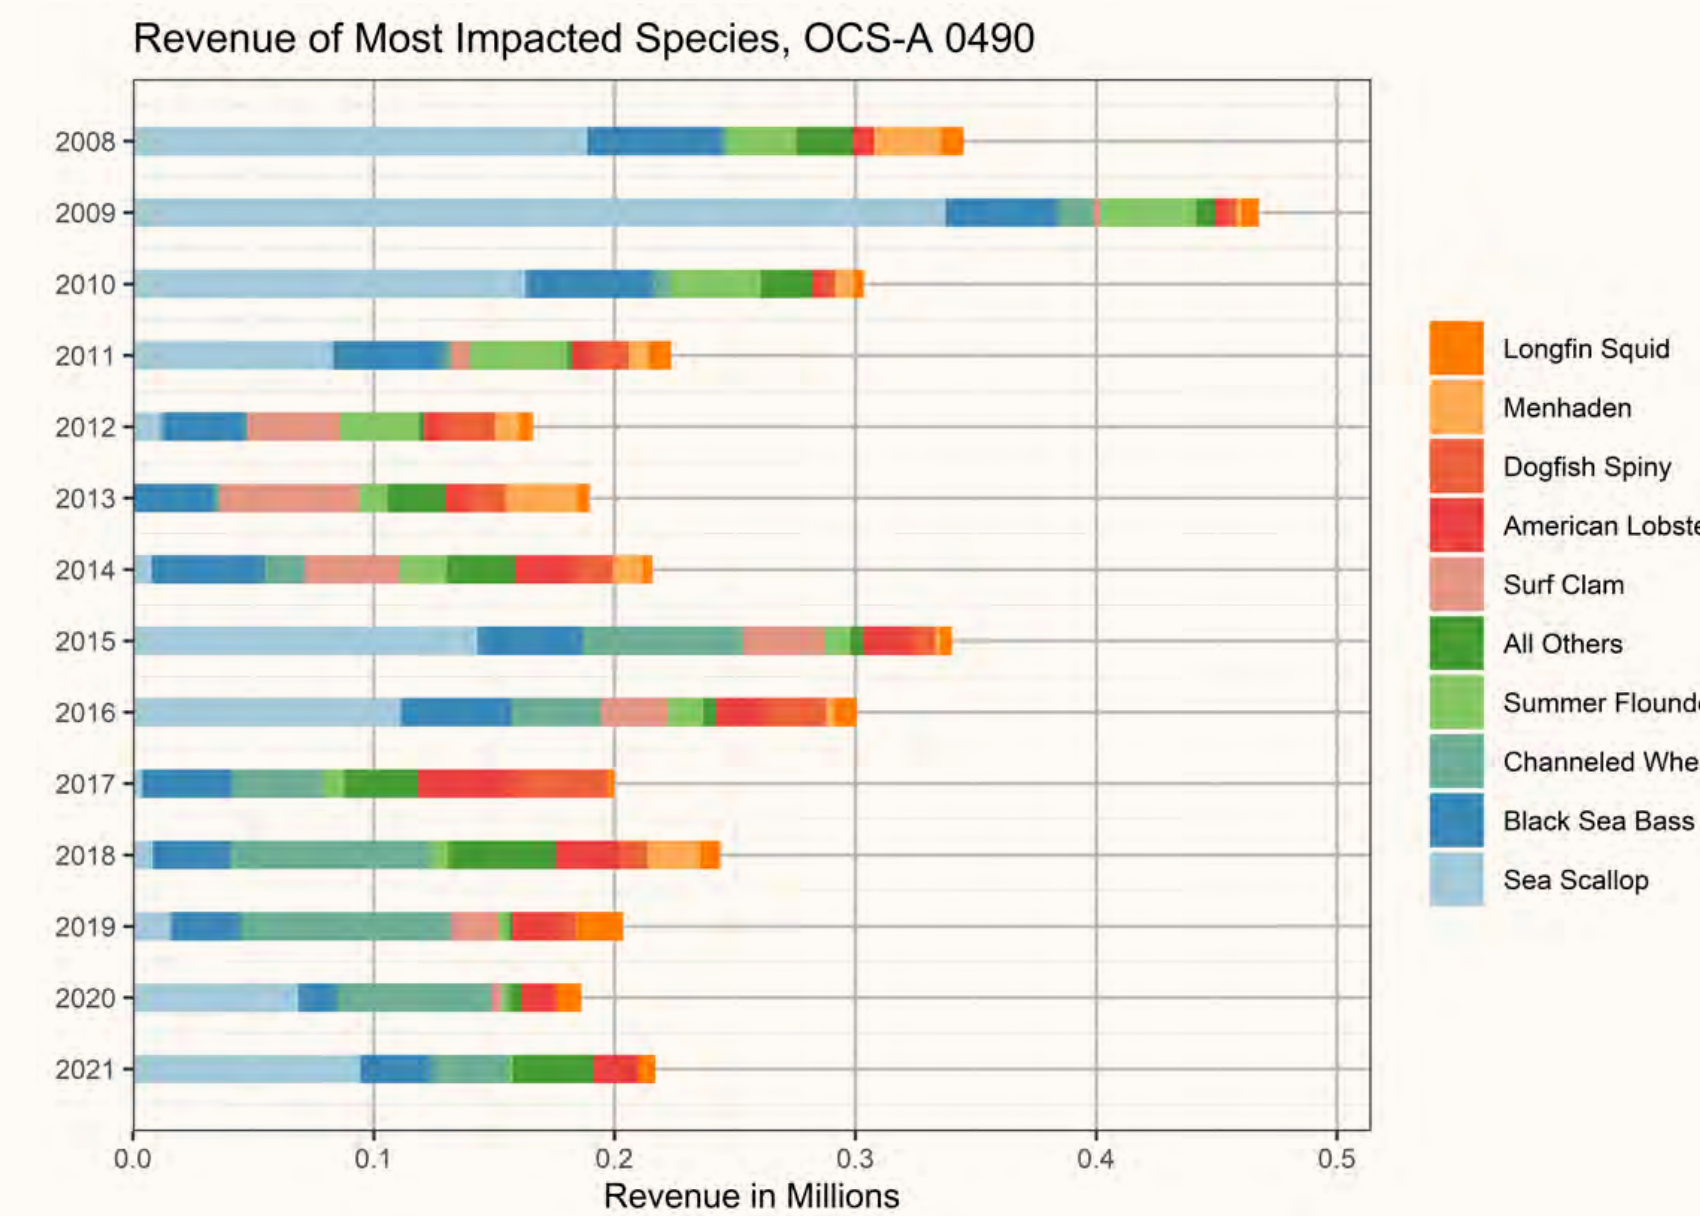

Fishery Landings, Revenue, and VMS Activity

Commercial fishing landings from the most impacted species for the US Wind Lease Area from 2008 to 2021

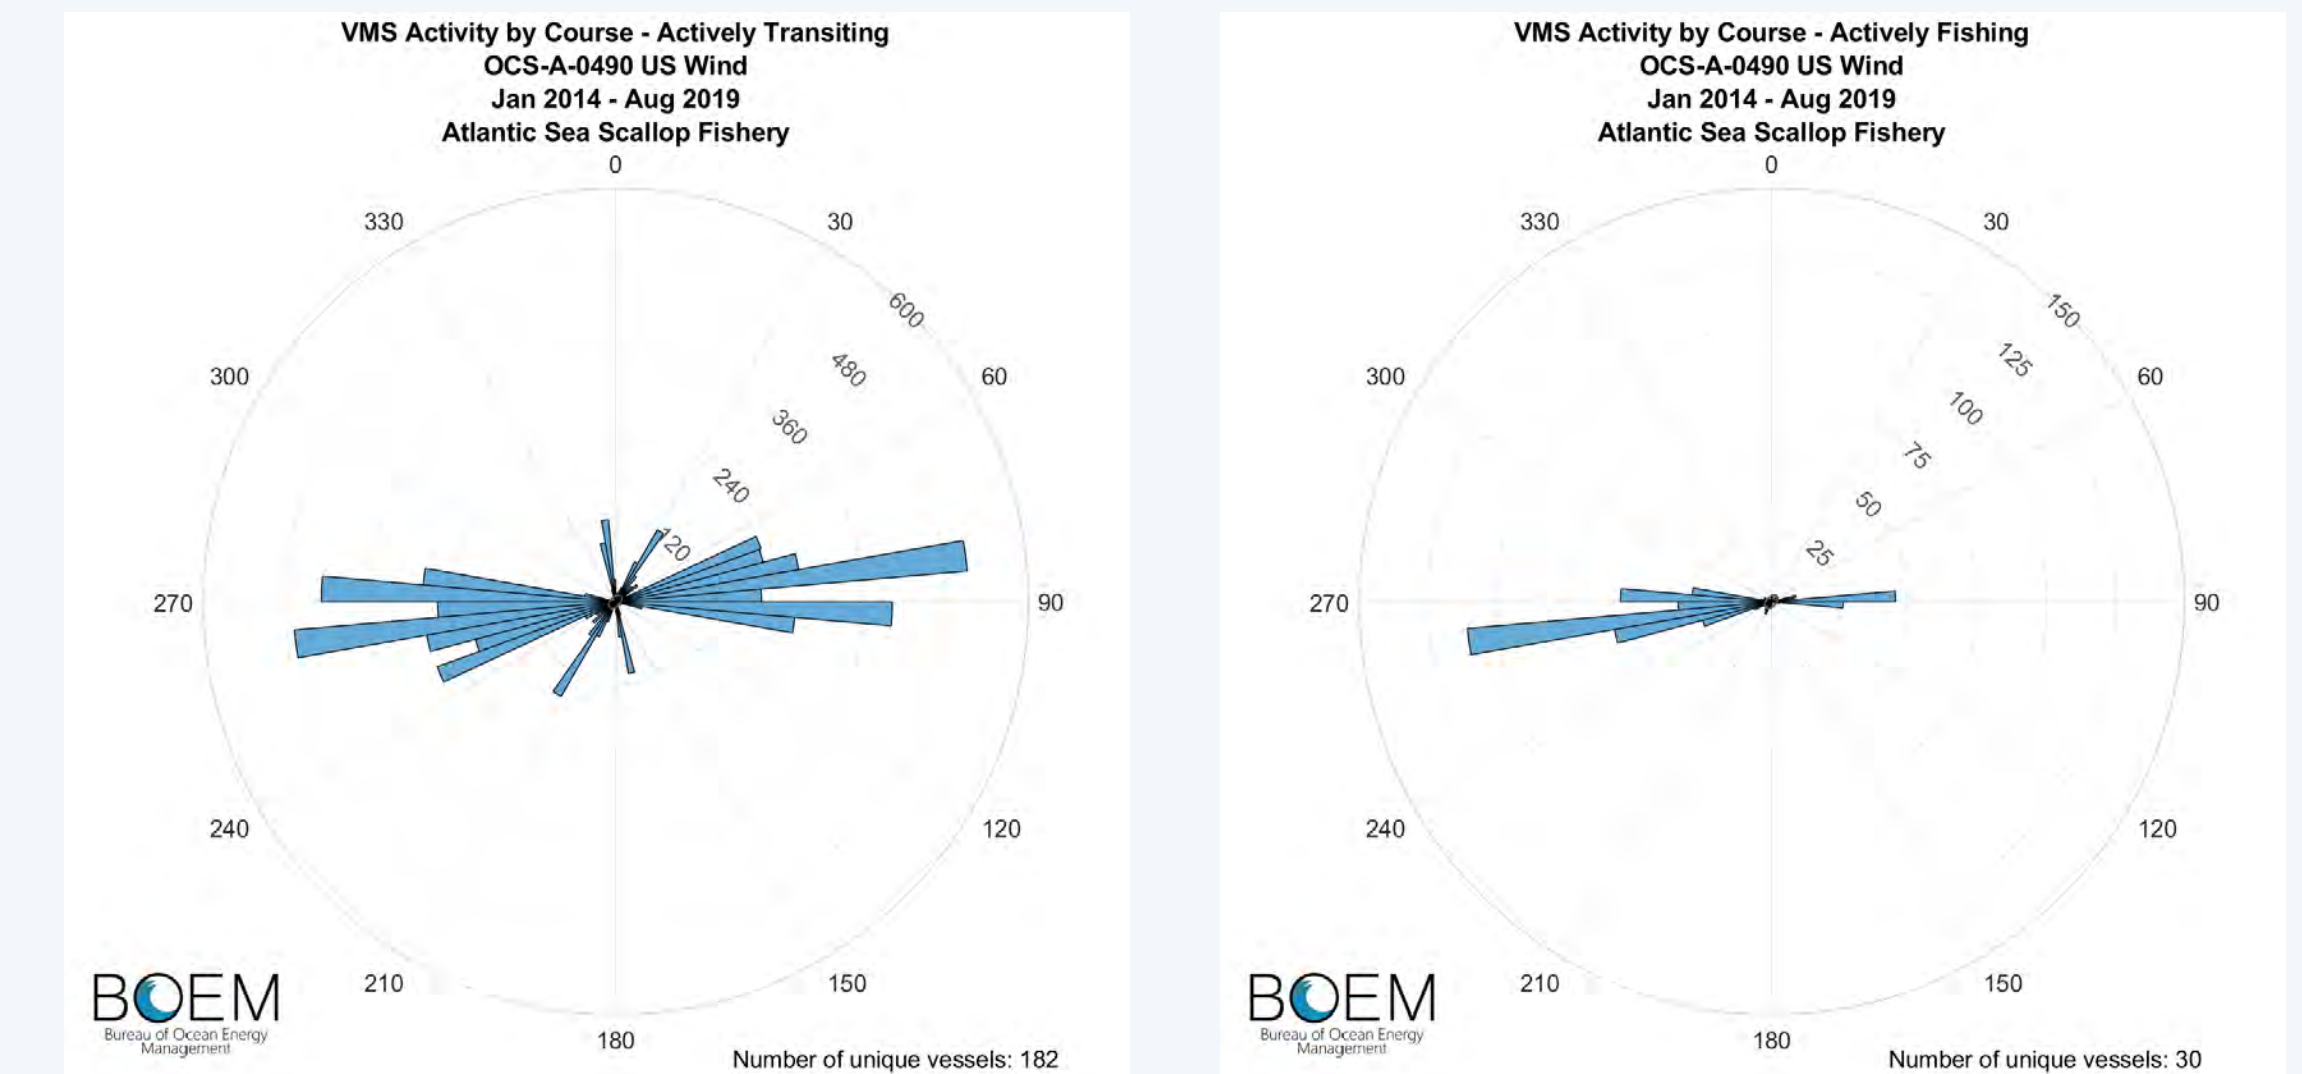

Source: NMFS 2023

Commercial fishing revenue (2021 U.S. dollars) from the most impacted species for the US Wind Lease Area from 2008 to 2021

Source: NMFS 2023

VMS Bearings for Vessels actively transiting and fishing in the Lease Area Atlantic Sea Scallop Fishery, January 2014 to August 2019

Most impacted ports and revenue for commercial fishing in the US Wind Lease Area

Port	2008–2021 Revenue (2021 U.S. dollars)
Ocean City, Maryland	$1,558,000
Cape May, New Jersey	$640,000
New Bedford, Massachusetts	$454,000
Indian River, Delaware	$450,000
Newport News, Virginia	$203,000

Source: NMFS 2023

Port	2008–2021 Revenue (2021 U.S. dollars)
Atlantic City, New Jersey	$159,000
Hampton, Virginia	$94,000
North Kingstown, Rhode Island	$64,000
Other Cape May, New Jersey	$57,000
All Others	$145,000

VMS Bearings for Vessels actively transiting and fishing in the Lease Area Surfclam and Ocean Quahog Fishery, January 2014 to August 2019

