

New York Bight Draft Programmatic Environmental Impact Statement (PEIS)

What to Expect at the In-Person Open House Public Meetings

REGISTER HERE

The public is welcomed to attend from 4:00 PM until 7:00 PM.

The meetings will follow an informal, open-house format. After checking in at the registration desk, attendees can visit stations staffed by BOEM subject matter experts to view New York Bight Draft PEIS information.

Attendees can also view a pre-recorded video providing information on the environmental review process and an overview of the Draft PEIS that will be played continuously from 4:00 PM until 7:00 PM.

Additionally, during the meetings, attendees can submit formal public comments for the record on laptops to Regulations.gov, via handwritten comment cards, or by individually recording oral comment cards, or by individually recording oral comments at a comment station.

If additional accommodations are needed at the in-person meetings, please contact boempublicaffairs@boem.gov or call (202) 517-1249 seven days prior to the in-person meeting date.

During each virtual meeting, BOEM will provide an overview presentation, after which members of the public may make formal oral public statements for the record.

All lines will be muted during the meeting until individuals are called on by the meeting facilitator to provide comments in front of all attendees. Attendees can ask clarifying questions to BOEM staff through the webinar Q&A function; questions will be addressed after the public statements. All comments and questions received during the public meeting will be part of the public record.

Registration for the virtual public meetings may be completed by using the links above or through the BOEM New York Bight website, after which meeting information will be sent to the participant. The public may also attend by using the dial-in number, webinar ID, and passcode provided above for each meeting.
